

Rothko Chapel

Application for Permission to Photograph or Film

The Rothko Chapel is a sacred space open to all to inspire people to action through art and contemplation, to nurture reverence for the highest aspirations of humanity, and to provide a forum for global concerns. The Chapel may grant permission for filming and photography by organizations and individuals on a case by case basis depending on the nature of the project. The fees applied depend on the nature and scope of the project. Any repeats or further use of the photographs and /or film require a new application and further permission.
